THE SENTINEL.

JOSIAH TURNER, Jr., EDITOR

OFFICE OF MONDAY, MAY 16, 1870.

EMPLOYING A SPECIAL EDITOR.

"My son, Joe," editor of the Standard wrote to the pious Welker, of Guilford, a divine straggler from Ohio, that he would, if necessary, "employ some man to edit Jo. Turner," while he, Joe, would "assume the responsibility."

A few days after this promise to Welker, Sneed, the Johnston county horse-thief, appears in the Standard, calling us all manner of hard names, and assailing our character only as a horse-thief, the Governor, or his drunken son Joe, could do.

Next appeared an editorial in the same strain, evidently written by the Governor, himself. So, it seems, the "necessity" has arisen, and Joseph employs the horse-thief and "Dad," to "edit Jo. Turner."

It would be a matter of some slight gratification to know what Joe gives "Dad" for "editing" us. He is certainly giving considerable attention to the Standard, just now; even this morning he was seen coming from the Standard office where he had been, no doubt, to leave the editorials he wrote yesterday, (Sunday.) We shall be able to decide as to the correctness of this conjecture when the Standard makes its appearance to-morrow morning.

Some weeks ago, a colored man reported the Governor as going to the Standard office, down a back street, and when he got to the gate, sneaked in hurriedly, as if afraid of being seen.

But "dad" is growing more shameless on the subject now, and may be seen daily at the Standard office, where Gen. Clingman's address is published and "dad" himself is pruned and fluttered; perhaps to read the proofs of these incubations.

Last week we published "dad" for going in at the back door of a drinking saloon, and, in retaliation, Joseph republishes, this morning, "dad's" article "editing" us, in which we are called a "public drunkard, coward," &c.

We tell Joseph, "dad's" old political stock in trade isn't marketable; even Welker won't bid for it; it is as flat as Radical State bonds.

There is not a man of any prominence in the State that "dad" has not calumniated, slandered and abused, at one time or another. In times of great party excitement and political blindness, some may have believed him, but now, there are none so low or stupid as to be caught by his old tricks.

We cannot allow His Excellency, "dad," to draw us away from our work of exposing his Littlefield operations and villanies, by stepping aside to defend ourself against his, or any of his special editors' charges of drunkenness and cowardice. It is a right cute trick of "dad's" to endeavor thus to draw us off, but it won't take.

We have no doubt Joseph was drunk last Saturday, when he republished "dad's" old editorial. Shakspeare "never repeats himself," but Joseph does; and not only repeats himself, but repeats "dad" also, by copying his false and foul editorial twice within ten days.

Joseph declares, in his peculiarly classical style, that we "lied," when we stated he was drunk, on the occasion of his buggy "zig zagging" through the streets like Judge Settle's did on a certain occasion. If he was not drunk, we owe him an apology; but we were told he was. We can only testify personally to the fact of the buggy's "zig zagging," for we saw that.

But, if Joseph was not drunk on this occasion, he is compensated for our publishing him so, by our omission to publish that little bout he had with Pike in a drinking house, the same week the buggy "zig zagged." You remember it, Joseph; it was the time when Pike, the one-legged man, kept you off of him by drawing a pistol on you.

Yes, Joseph; if we published you drunk once, when you were not, you can put it down as a set off to the various times we omitted to publish you when you were; and then you can have no cause to complain.

Pike says he knows enough to commit certain distinguished supporters of the Governor's administration to the penitentiary. We have no doubt of it; and that the Governor does, too. But the Governor is like Pike; he can't tell. But he will yet be compelled to speak; the public robbery of which he is cognizant cannot remain secret forever.

LOOK OUT FOR HIM.

The people of the mountains may look out for Gen. Clingman. He is coming among them on a speechmaking expedition, with Littlefield's note for $15,000 in his pocket.

This fifteen thousand dollars properly belongs to the contractors for the work on the great Western Railroad, or to the farmers who furnished bread and meat for the hands of the contractors on the work, as it came as a bonus from Littlefield who took the money designed for building the Road and appropriated it to his own use.

Littlefield was a bankrupt adventurer when he came here; and he acquired very little money, honestly, after he got here.—Gen. Clingman is well aware of this fact.

We think it likely that Gen. Clingman would be listened to with much more complacency and satisfaction by the mountain people, if he would turn over the fifteen thousand dollars to the contractors, or to the State Treasurer. It would help to restore the State credit, and would be no discredit to the General himself.

"CALL ME PET NAMES, DEAREST."

The pious old Welker, one-eyed preacher from Ohio, State Senator from Guilford, and editor of the Republican newspaper at Greensboro', having become tired of serving the Lord, has now engaged in the service of Holden, the Radicals and the devil.

He is trying to change fronts and to make some pretense that he is honest, and as a part of his plan, refused to attend the Radical meeting in this city, last week.

To curry favor with the moderate men of Guilford, in the last issue of his paper, he made a blackguard fling at his friend, Joe, and the Standard.

The Standard thus replies to brother Welker: "The Republican at Greensboro' sees fit to indulge in certain remarks concerning us, which are in character with the former course of its writers. It is always in a squabble with its friends. Now, the editor of that paper wrote us from Company Shops, better than a month ago, to assail Jo. Turner. In fact he found fault because we did not do so. We wrote him that we would do so in due time, and, if necessary, employ some man to edit Turner, while we would be responsible. But the Republican now flings up its hands in horror. We don't care if it is shocked.—The advice was gratuitous, because we were able to paddle our own canoe."

We did not know before that Joseph's blackguarding us was of "divine" suggestion, and the Reverend Mr. Welker the suggester. The pious Welker has certainly mistaken his calling, on the one side or the other. He really ought to have been chosen to edit the Standard.

The worst and most corrupt men of these corrupt times are so-called ministers of the gospel, who have forgotten God and the sanctity of their calling, and taken to Holden and gone to gambling in politics for a living, like this man Welker and the pious Sinclair.

We call the attention of the Grand Jury of Guilford to this man, Welker, who made war speeches and encouraged his neighbors' children to take up arms against the government, and afterwards, as we are informed, took the test oath, swearing he never "gave aid, countenance nor encouragement to the rebellion."

If he did this thing, why not present him for perjury, as they did Starbuck?

Will some Guilford friend give us the preaching devil's war record, and inform us, certainly, whether he took the test oath?

We are studious to avoid controversies with preachers, but when we are assailed by them, we shall deal with them as we did with Rev. Sinclair—make their Church and their acts answer them.

HOOD, THE CONNECTICUT NEGRO.

The attention of the public has been called to the fact that, without the shadow of law or authority of any kind from the Constitution or the General Assembly, a colored man, Hood, a preacher, has been for some time, by the appointment of Gov. Holden and Pilgrim Ashley, kept in the office of Assistant Superintendent of Public Instruction at a handsome salary. The Legislature has but lately closed a long session, and yet nothing was done so far as the public know, to legalize that office, or to inquire into the necessity for it. So far as Hood is concerned we have heard nothing alleged against him until recently. He is intelligent and we presume ordinarily conducts himself well. But it has lately come to our ear, that as there is nothing for Ashley or Hood to do towards Superintending the public Schools of the State, (there being none in operation) that Hood, while travelling about at the public expense, professedly to address the people on the subject of education, is engaged in renewing or forming the secret Leagues among the colored people.

We hope this is not so, and if it be shown us that it is untrue, we will willingly give him the benefit of a denial, as we would not knowingly injure any innocent man. If this rumor, however, be true, we call upon the peaceable and quiet people of the State to mark him. If it be true, we want to know the facts, as it might be a fit case for a Grand Jury.

DISSATISFACTION.

There is manifestly dissatisfaction among some of the colored people in regard to the nomination of James Harris for Congress. They charge him with selling them out too cheap at the last election. Besides this, they do not like James's early declaration, that the colored people do not wish or look for social equality.

Galloway speaks the sentiments of his party on this question. He thinks a man who sits in the electoral college, or in the Congress of the nation, with his white brethren, is decent enough to sit at the same dinner table with them.

A carpet-bag Yankee, who says he was with the Sherman bummers through this section, and calls himself Billy Patterson, and whose only visible means of support since he came "out South," which has been a year or more ago, has been "pilfering around the colored people, broke into the house of Fred Horn, said to be an industrious colored man, living a few miles from Wadesboro,' while the latter was at work, a few days ago, and took out an elephantine load of bacon and flour, and adding to the pile a few chickens, hastened, bummer like, away. He was recognized some distance from Horne's by other workmen, bowing mightily beneath his herculean load. Soon after the man passed, the report of the robbery came,' and Messrs. Cason, Gulledge and others were soon in hot pursuit, and, it is presumed, will soon take up the "cute critter" and lodge him at the public expense. —Wadesboro Argus.

The infamous article in Tuesday's Standard in which Gov. Bragg, Judge Merrimon, Col. Amis and other gentlemen were published as tapers, has called forth universal execration upon its author. Some trouble might ensue were it not that the editor of that sheet is so extensively known and his statements estimated at their proper value. There is no depth of shame to which he will not descend after this. If he had the same capacity, the chances are that he would excel even his notorious father in the use of disreputable means against an opponent.—Henderson Index.

For the Sentinel.

(CONCLUDED FROM SATURDAY.)

But Mr. Clingman says, in effect, that Gov. Graham signed the ordinance of secession which took North Carolina out of the union, and thus early defined his position in respect to the war. True, Gov. Graham signed the ordinance, but the war was then upon us to all intents and purposes. Mr. Clingman's secession doctrine and other causes that produced it, had worked out their legitimate results. Already the cohorts of the North, with banners unfurled, were equipping for the terrible conflict; and armed foes were advancing upon our borders in the vain confidence of an easy triumph. Prompt and vigorous action, therefore, on the part of all whose interest identified them with the South, became necessary. Unitedly the manhood of the country, without discrimination as to party, or previous political predilection, rushed to meet the desperate charge, and the blood from a hundred battle fields, will proclaim to all future generations, the unprecedented valor with which they met their equally valorous foes in the deadly shock of battle. Shock after shock—terrible and sanguinary—followed each other in rapid succession. The unequal contest continued with unabated fury for some time, without any decided advantage on either side; but finally the valiant armies of the South were forced to draw in their lines with every inch of ground nobly contested. Gradually they were driven to the wall, and finally overpowered by superior numbers. The war had now closed, but it left the South one vast, white-spread devastation. Secession with all its promised advantages had now proved a failure. The capital stock in politics from which Mr. Clingman had drawn his supplies of eloquent thunder for years, had now proved a mere phantom—a vain delusion; notwithstanding he had demonstrated its practicability on paper a thousand times.

Now in this day of great calamity, this hour of deep disappointment, when secession has proved to be a mere mental hallucination, Mr. Clingman is ready to charge Mr. Davis or Mr. any body else, except himself, with the cause of failure. I believe Mr. Clingman has never been known to lay blame for anything at his own door.

I imagine I see this distinguished secession leader, just after the close of the war, sitting on a stump, all covered with the dust of many a hard fought battle, with a few of his old political adherents gathered around him. He tells them first and last and all the time, that he is not the cause of failure; but he says Mr. Davis has not done his duty, General Lee has not done his duty, Stonewall Jackson has not done his duty, Governor Graham and Governor Vance have not done their duty, and a host of others have not done their duty. I alone of all the great men am blameless. His former political adherents—battle scarred and dusty—shake their heads dubiously, and begin to walk off one by one, until finally the "old man" is left all alone in his glory talking to himself. Truly his condition is now pitiable in the extreme—defeated, politically isolated, forlorn and solitary. Indeed it makes me feel sad to contemplate him in this hour of his total political abandonment. But he still sits on the stump. Directly a very cheerful and kindly disposed gentleman rides up on a little speckle back bob-tail pony. For convenience we will call this gentleman John Jackson Spriggins. Mr. Spriggins finds Mr. Clingman in a state of total abstraction, and to all appearence, in deep trouble. At the sight of such distress, Mr. Spriggins feels emotions of great commiseration welling up in his great soul. Mr. Clingman still talks to himself. Finally he says something about old line Whigs. Mr. Spriggins naturally supposes Mr. Clingman is upbraiding himself for having gotten them into the war. This is enough. He springs from his pony, runs to Mr. Clingman and says. Oh! do not blame yourself Mr. Clingman, we are all whipped together and we will say no more about it. We do not upbraid you, indeed we do not. Mr. Clingman turns in his seat at the utterance of these words of sympathy, and after looking with startled gaze for some time at Mr. Spriggins says, Your name is John Jackson Spriggins, I believe? Yes sir. You are one of the leaders of the old line Whig party—are you not Mr. Spriggins? Yes sir. Go way, go way Mr. Spriggins; you have not done your duty in the war, and even if you have, I cannot endure a leader of the old line Whigs. Mr. Spriggins remonstrates, but Mr. Clingman waves him off. Finally Mr. Spriggins goes away sorrowful, pitying in his heart of hearts, the deep ingratitude of the human race.

But, if I am not greatly mistaken in the character of Mr. Clingman, he is not going to remain in this state of political isolation very long if he can help it; that is, if the public has any use for him; or rather if there is any place in the public service where he can be allowed to make himself useful. Doubtless he has been watching his opportunity for over five long, weary years, but no opportunity has yet occurred. But at last, a little spark of hope—dim twinkling in the political firmament, afar off—reflected from the departed glory of the late ntel Dewerse, sends a flickering beam athwart the deep gloom that has so long overshadowed him, and like a drowning man catching at straws, he clutches spasmodically at the phantom; but I believe the hope of his political salvation will prove illusory, and he will sink to rise no more, when only a momentary ripple will be left on the surface to tell the fate of the departed one. But I imagine on the shore of sweet deliverance from the public service, he will strike hands with the good (?) Dewerse, where together let them sweetly sing of glory departed. So Mr. Clingman should view his political situation. In my opinion the fates have decreed no higher destiny for him; but it is to be hoped that in the "Hon." Dewerse he will find a congenial spirit.

While I believe Mr. Clingman is politically dead, and that his late address was about the last "wag of the trickster's tail," yet I desire to say something about the purpose of that production. Doubtless it was intended to create division in the Conservative or Democratic ranks, and thus secure the triumph of the Radical party at the next election. Certainly, if it had not fallen dead from the press, or comparatively so, it could have produced no other result. Mr. Clingman well knew this when he flooded the State with that document. To give it effect he still calls himself a Democrat. He hopes by the potency of a name, to which he now has no claim, to arouse old political prejudices. But there are now no old political issues. Then why this studied effort to re-light the fires of old political strife which have long since gone out because there was no longer anything to support the blaze? Is it not perfectly clear that Mr. Clingman's object in all this, is to secure at the next election a renewed triumph of Radicalism in North Carolina? To try to accomplish this end under any circumstances is bad enough, but to labor for it, while claiming the name of the party he would betray, is double dealing of the meanest type. I can command no language suitable to describe the extreme wickedness of such dealing, for such a purpose. The wholesale plunder and almost total ruin of our whole people, have resulted from the miscle of the party now in power in North Carolina. Yet, by creating division in the ranks of the opposition, by the basest political treachery, Mr. Clingman, for some reason, would continue this party in power. Like Judas Iscariot, who, for thirty pieces of silver, betrayed the Master who had long honored him with his smiles, Mr. Clingman, with the garb of a Democrat hung over a nasty Radical carcass, would sell and betray the very people to whom he is indebted for a political existence. Such treachery ought to rob any man so deep in the accumulated nastiness of all political filth, that a thousand blasts from Gabriel's "horn" could not resurrect the dirty thing. Rather than such a diabolical purpose should succeed, it would be better if North Carolina could slip from her moorings, geographically I mean, and float in mass to Africa or some other suitable region, where she could commence anew under more favorable auspices. But in this case, I should regret, exceedingly, for W. W. Holden to be at the helm of the ship, for I should expect him to sell out ship, cargo, passengers and all, to Messrs. Sharpson, Littlefield & Co. Mr. Clingman, I suppose, would be ready to act as their counsel or legal adviser, and would, perhaps, get about ten per cent of the "private" investment.

Respectfully, &c.,

CITIZEN OF YANCY.

P. S. I know I have gone beyond proper limits in the length of this article, but to have said less would have been no relief to my feelings. I shall be greatly obliged if you will give the entire article a place in your paper. C. of Y.

Special telegram to the Richmond Dispatch.

THE GEORGIA BRIBERY CASE.

WASHINGTON, May 14, 1870.

Governor Bullock, of Georgia, has not turned up yet to testify before the Senate committee to investigate the charges of bribery to defeat the Bingham amendment. The testimony thus far does not directly prove that money was paid to any Senator, but it does show that the proposition was made by a person on behalf of the Bullock party to purchase the vote of Senator Carpenter. The proof already produced and yet to be adduced, show that paragraphs were prepared and published here in the Chronicle which purported to come from Georgia, but which were manufactured here to effect public opinion and mislead congressmen as to the state of affairs in Georgia.

A telegram was published here a few days ago from Georgia in the nature of a threat from Bullock that he would prosecute the publishers for libel on account of paragraphs that have appeared in prints showing up the acts and purposes of Bullock, Blodgett & Co. No one fears any such prosecution. The half of the enormity of their conduct has not yet been given to the public, but the investigation now progressing will bring much of it to light.

HAIL.—A terrible hail storm passed over this section yesterday forenoon. It was the most violent that has been known here for a number of years, some of the stones being as large as a pigeon's egg. They fell for about ten minutes, the ground being whitened by them. The first of the hail were not larger than buckshot, but as the storm increased so did the size of those falling. We fear that serious injury has been sustained by the truckers in this neighborhood.

Since the above was written we learn that the storm extended some distance from the city, along the line of the Wilmington and Weldon Railroad. At one point, 5 miles north of us, it continued for four hours—from 1 to 4 o'clock—and was the most terrific ever known in this section. The ground was covered with the hail to the depth of several inches, some of the stones measuring as much as 6 inches in diameter, and being described "as large as a hen's egg." We have been unable to learn the extent of damage, as yet.—Wilmington Journal, 14th inst.

DEAF AND DUMB MAN SHOT.—We understand that Jessie Holder, a deaf and dumb white man, was shot on Saturday night last near Fayetteville by a negro. The buck shot entered the forehead and was extracted by Dr. K. A. Black. We have not heard the particulars, but understand that the wound is not serious.—Fayetteville Eagle.

THE SENTINEL.

CITY AND STATE ITEMS.

MONDAY, MAY 16, 1870.

☞ Jno. N. Ramsay, as Business Clerk, is authorized to make contracts and give receipts, &c., &c.

MASONIC.—Hiram Lodge No. 40 will meet this evening at 8 o'clock.

THE RESCUE FIRE CO.—We are requested to state that the meeting of the Rescue Steam Fire Company, No. 1, appointed for to-morrow night, has been postponed until Wednesday night, when a full attendance is requested, as business of importance will claim the attention of the meeting.

THE EXCURSION TO MORROW.—We learn, incidentally, that the excursion train which takes the M. E. Sunday School to Hillsboro, to morrow, will leave the Raleigh station at half past 7 o'clock in the morning. The officers, teachers and children of the school, will meet at the church at 7 o'clock, and the parents and contributors who go, can meet either at the Church or the depot, as they prefer.

We are not advised as to any regulation in regard to the excursion, what it will do at Hillsboro, when it will return, or anything concerning it, more than we have stated above.

P. S. We learn that Rufus Stanley will be along, with his Brass Band, to enliven the occasion.

TIGHT ROPE EXCURSION.—As we are closing to go to press, crowds are gathering on Fayetteville street, to witness Monsier Donaldson perform his tight rope feat, for which purpose he has a rope stretched across the street from the top of Williams & Haywood's Drug Store, diagonally to the top of Creech's store, over which he will make an excursion, precisely a 5 o'clock.

To-night he will exhibit feats of slight of hand, magic and ventriloquism, at Tucker Hall, where the usual amount of valuable presents will be disposed of.

We would call special attention of our readers in Alamance, Orange, Granville, Person, and Caswell, N. C., and Halifax and Pittsylvania, Va., to the advertisement of Messrs. Wilson, Walker & Ball, of Milton, N. C., tobacco brokers. Milton is said to be a very good tobacco market.—We notice in some of the recent sales by this house, one lot for Mrs. Woody, of Person, at 25; one at 37; one at 50; a lot for Mr. Kersey, of Caswell, for 50; a lot for Mr. Umstead, of Orange, for 78; one for 27; one for 30, and one for 44. A lot for Mr. Thaxton, of Person, for 76½; one for Lee Clay, for 76; and several lots for E. Dalby, of Granville, ranging from 17 to 96½. These, we should call pretty good prices.

CIRCULAR.—We have received a "wholesale trade circular," issued by those indefatigable Grocers of our city, the Leach Brothers, in which the Raleigh wholesale prices are given for the benefit of those trading to this point.

We take occasion to say that we have sampled some of their nice Goshen butter, fresh supplies of which they receive every week, and find it number one.

WOMEN DESIRE WHAT MEN ADMIRE.—Men generally admire beauty in women, and, therefore, women desire to appear beautiful. To accomplish this, the aid of art is invoked, especially the art of dress, which, when intelligently applied, almost invariably proves successful.

But of all the items of dress, none goes farther in producing a pleasing effect, in the morning and evening promenade, and the great assembly, than a tasteful hat or bonnet, with appropriate trimmings, adapted to the general contour and complexion of the wearer.

To meet this demand of the ladies, Mrs. Œttinger, at her popular establishment, is thoroughly prepared. The large number and varied quality of hats and bonnets she has on hand, with the necessary accompaniments of ribons, flowers and laces, enables her to suit all tastes, all complexions, (and there is a great deal in that,) as well as all purses. At the same time her superior knowledge of her business and her exquisite taste as to what is fashionable and becoming, will enable her, in nine cases out of ten, to suit her lady customers better than they could suit themselves.

ROW AMONG THE NYMPHS.—We understand that last night two women of the free and easy order, named Geneva Morris and Agnes Brown, went to a house occupied by Mattie Bray, and attacked her, the said Mattie, in a most brutal manner, stabbing her very severely in several places. Jealousy is said to be the cause of the difficulty.

Agnes Brown is proprietress of a house of ill-fame, of which Geneva Morris is an inmate, and Mattie Bray is the proprietress of a similar establishment.

We have not learned whether any arrests have been made, nor the actual condition of the wounded woman, at the time of going to press.

NOTICE.—If the person who took a BAG and UMBRELLA from the cars on the N. C. Railroad, at Raleigh, on Wednesday, May the 11th, will leave it with Pescud, Lee & Co., Druggists, Raleigh, a liberal reward will be paid and no questions asked. The bag is marked "T. M. Grant, Elmira, N. Y.," on the side. 1t.

THE GRAND KY. PRIZE SCHEME.—Our readers will be equally rejoiced with us, to know that the commissioners appointed by the Legislature of Kentucky to take charge of the Enterprise, have positively and irrevocably fixed the 4th day of July next as the time when the drawing will take place at MASONIC TEMPLE, LOUISVILLE, KY. The correspondence between the proprietor of the enterprise and the commissioners is published, and has the true ring of honest integrity, for which all the parties have ever been noted. These gentlemen stand foremost among the noble citizens of the grand old Commonwealth of Kentucky, and we know that their course will be universally approved by the people. The books of all Agents, (except those at Louisville and Henderson) will be closed, and returns made on the 25th day of June.†

IMPROVEMENTS IN WESTERN WARD.—Various improvements are going on in the Western Ward of the City, in the way of building and repairing houses, renewing fences &c. Among the more recent, we mention the new Foundry of W. T. Adams & Son, which is in successful operation; additions and improvements to the Carpenter and Machine Shop of Messrs. Betts, Vaughan & Allen; a new cottage residence on Harrington street, by Mr. Willis Whitaker; a very neat new residence on the N. E. corner of Mrs. Andrews' lot, opposite the Iredell place; a new cottage residence, by Mr. W. B. Hutchings, and the new family residence, for Mr. B. P. Williamson, on the western half of the James Taylor lot.

In going out to Milburnie, last Friday morning, we noticed, at a distance, a fine new residence going up, for Rev. J. Brinton Smith, on the Atkinson place, just east of the city; under the superintendence of Mr. Owen, architect.

TO THE CONSERVATIVE AND DEMOCRATIC VOTERS OF THE SECOND CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICT.

Feeling the necessity for thorough organization in order to accomplish that success to which the principles of our party entitle it, we deem it our duty to urge upon you, energetic, united and earnest efforts in bringing about a result so much to be desired by all good men.

And for the purpose of aiding you as far as practicable in this important matter, we recommend that in all counties where meetings have not already been held, the Executive Committees who acted during the past Campaign, reorganize and call Conventions at such times and places as in their judgment may seem best. The business of said Convention, to be, to nominate candidates for county offices, appoint delegates to the District Convention to nominate a candidate for Congress, and to dispose of such other matters as may properly come before them.

We take the responsibility, after such consultation as we have been able to hold with influential members of the party, to name the town of Goldsboro as the place, and Wednesday the 22nd day of June, as the time for holding the District Convention.

Very Respectfully,
WM. G. MORISEY,
THOS. S. KENAN,
JOHN HUGHES,

RALEIGH, May 12, 1870.

MR. EDITOR:—I am a citizen of Newbern and a delegate to the Republican Convention. I called at the National Hotel, kept by Mr. Ruffes, and asked for a drink. The House being kept by a Northern man and a Republican, I expected to be treated like a friend and brother; but I was refused a drink.

I complained to Judge Thomas of the manner in which I had been insulted, and asked his advice as to what remedy I had. The Judge told me to consult my friends.—I told him I thought I was consulting my friend then.

I next advised with Col. Clarke as to my remdy for the insult. The Colonel would hardly believe it, and to test the matter, he immediately ordered drinks at the bar for half a dozen colored gentlemen. Charles, the bar keeper, refused to let Col. Clarke have the drinks for his friends, on account of their color.

Now, Mr. Editor, if this is Republicanism, we must have another amendment to the constitution.

I desire you, Mr. Editor, to publish this letter, that Republicans may know what Republicanism is in Raleigh.

Respectfully,
E. JACKSON.

OFFICE OF THE N. C. LAND CO.
RALEIGH, N. C. May 9th, 1870.

Mr. Editor:

SIR:—We are in receipt of several letters from capitalists of Europe, asking us to forward them descriptions of some eight to ten large tracts of land, in different parts of the State, containing from 15,000 to 100,000 acres each, to settle colonies on.

Owners of such tracts, who wish to sell, will please forward to our office, description of their land, location, price, terms &c. This company makes no charge for land placed in their hands, unless a sale is made.

A prominent Shipping House, of Liverpool writes us to day, asking if we will engage to furnish them with return freight, if they put on a line of Steamers to carry emigrants direct from Liverpool to Wilmington in our State. All they ask is for us to insure them this, and they will put on a steamer at once.

Here is an opportunity offered for us to ship the produce of this good old State direct to Europe, without paying tribute to any of our sister States; who will assist us in bringing this about?

R. KINGSLAND, Secretary,
N. C. Land Company.

STATE MEDICAL SOCIETY.—This body of useful and intelligent medical gentlemen will assemble in this city on Wednesday morning, the 25th inst.

The occasion will be one of much importance to the Medical profession, as well as of interest to our city. The Association ranges in membership from the seaboard to the mountains, and leading and enterprising physicians from various portions will here assemble to a social re-union, and to discuss diseases and consider means for advancing medical science and for improving and elevating the medical profession.

Let our citizens vie with the physicians of this city and county in making their stay among us pleasant and interesting.—We are glad to know that many of our leading citizens are offering their homes to those who are expected. Wilmington has a high character to keep up for hospitality and kindness to strangers. Let it be more than maintained during this annual meeting of the medical Society of the State of North Carolina.

The daily sessions will be held in the Court House.

The Annual Address will be delivered by Dr. C. T. Murphy, of Sampson county.—Wil. Star.

The son of a Chinese Emperor, is a beggar in San Francisco. One of those sudden revolutions to which that kingdom is so subject hurried his father from his throne and caused the murder of all who loved and honored him. Through the fidelity of an old servant the young Prince was saved from the general butchery. Still, his name alone would have been his death-warrant at any time. So he lived in poverty and constant dread, shunned by all and shunning all. When the first cargoes of Chinese were sent to California, he, welcoming this as an opportunity for escape from an atmosphere of death to him, smuggled himself on board one of the ships.

REMARKABLE.—A feud existing for some time between two well known farmers in the upper part of Davidson county, was terminated very unexpectedly some two weeks ago by the death of one of the parties. The deceased had previously expressed his earnest wish that some untried fate would overtake his enemy, and that he would have the pleasure of seeing him put safely under ground: but his desire recoiled upon himself, and he was the first to go. The survivor, upon receiving intelligence of his death broke into extravagant demonstrations of delight, and thanked his good fortune that the was at last rid of his foe. Last week however, the survivor was suddenly taken ill, and he too died, his spirit passing away to the world of shadows to join the spirit of him he had so much hated. Both were apparently hale, hearty men; and, taking into consideration the feud and the circumstances attending it, their deaths, within a week or two of each other, was somewhat singular.—Salem Press.

Mr. John T. Ford, has sent Mayor Ellyson a check for $3 470, that being the sum realized by the performance given at the Holliday Street Theatre, Baltimore, last Saturday for the benefit of the Richmond sufferers.

Perry Davis' Pain Killer,

Has been tested in every variety of climate, and by almost every nation known to Americans. It is the almost constant companion and inestimable friend of the missionary and the traveler, on sea and land, and no one should travel on our LAKES or RIVERS WITHOUT IT.

It is a speedy and safe remedy for burns, scalds, cuts, bruises, wounds and various other injuries, as well as for dysentery, diarrhœa, and bowel complaints generally, and is admirably suited for every race of men on the face of the globe.

Be sure you call for and get the genuine Pain Killer, as many worthless nostrums are attempted to be sold on the great reputation of this valuable medicine.

A NEW DISCOVERY!!
PHALON'S
"VITALIA;"
OR,
Salvation for the Hair.

CLEAR AS WATER!
WITHOUT SEDIMENT!!
OPEN TO THE LIGHT!!!

For Restoring to Gray Hair its Original Color.

PHALON'S "VITALIA" differs utterly from all the hair coloring preparations heretofore used. It is limpid, sweet smelling, precipitates no muddy or slimy matter, requires no shaking, imparts no stain to the skin. Hold it to the light and it is clear and cloudless. It leaves no mark on the scalp; yet it reproduces in gray hair the natural color that time or sickness may have bleached out of it.

☞ Phalon's Vitalia ☜ is for one sole purpose, that of reproducing, with absolute certainty, the natural color of the hair. It is not intended as a daily dressing, nor for removing scurf or dandruff; nor for curing baldness; nor for stimulating the growth of the hair.—These objects may be accomplished after the color has been fixed with the Vitalia, by Phalon's Chemical Hair Invigorator.

THE VITALIA is a harmless and unequaled preparation for the reproduction of the original hue of gray hair, and nothing else. This is accomplished in from two to ten applications, according to the depth of shade required. Sold by all druggists.

PURELY MUTUAL. DIVIDENDS PAYABLE AT THE END OF THE FIRST YEAR AND ANNUALLY THEREAFTER.

The insuring public should not allow itself to be deceived with regard to the term "Annual Dividends." Many companies using this expression mean that their dividends are "annual" AFTER THEY ONCE BEGIN TO PAY THEM AT ALL; but they DO NOT BEGIN TO PAY until the settlement of the third, fourth, or fifth premium.

One hundred Dollars paid in dividends, at the end of one year, and each year thereafter, equals FOUR HUNDRED AND THIRTY-SIX DOLLARS paid at the end of FOUR YEARS, interest at six per cent.

POLICIES VALUABLE IN LIFE, AS WELL AS AT DEATH!!

THE BROOKLYN LIFE IS THE ONLY COMPANY IN AMERICA, WHICH GUARANTEES

DEFINITE CASH SURRENDER VALUES,

IN CASE A POLICY IS FORFEITED FOR NON-PAYMENT OF PREMIUM.

The BROOKLYN LIFE enjoys the highest reputation for judgment of investment, economy of management, and skill and care in the selection of risks,—upon which elements of administration the security of a Life Insurance Corporation depends.

The laws of New York compel Companies in that State to calculate the Cash value of their Policies, each and every year, and a certain legal standard of reserve and accumulation must be held by the Companies to meet all their liabilities.

Insurers in looking around for Companies in which to insure, should carefully seek for this important safeguard. It will be found in the BROOKLYN LIFE.

NON-EXPLOSIVE COMBINATION BURNING FLUID

THE CHEAPEST, BEST AND SAFEST ILLUMINATING AGENT IN THE WORLD!!

No more Exploded Cans!—No more Exploded Lamps!
No more Smoke!—No more Grease!
No more Fires!!
EVERYBODY PREFERS IT AFTER GIVING IT A TRIAL!

IT costs less!—It lasts longer!—Gives a more Brilliant Light!—May be burned in hand lamps, without chimney.

Guaranteed to make a better and safer Light than Coal Oil and to be NON-EXPLOSIVE!!!

No accidents have ever happened with it.

Protected by Copy Right for 28 years from May 8th 1868.

The above Fluid has been in constant use for upwards of three years, and has sustained its unrivalled reputation, as a brilliant, non-explosive illuminating agent, though subjected to the severest tests. Being universally conceded to be superior to Kerosene or Coal Oil. It makes a better light and more of it, than any other illuminating compound. Soft, clear, steady and uninjurious to the eyes. All that is asked is, a fair and impartial trial.

Among the numerous testimonials received read the following:

PHILADELPHIA, March 15th, 1869.

The undersigned, having witnessed the experiments of Messrs. Hale & Co., with their Combination Burning Fluid, take pleasure in commending it to the public. The various tests to which the Fluid was subjected, was in the highest degree satisfactory. We have no hesitation in pronouncing it to be a safe and brilliant illuminating agent. Its cheapness added to its other good qualities, should insure its introduction into every family in the country, where Kerosene Oil is used.

Testimonials without number from citizens of this, as well as those of other States might be published, but the above is sufficient. Any person having the Right can make 8 to 10 bbls., of the Fluid in an hour.

THE MOST SUCCESSFUL CASH COMPANY IN THE WEST!

The Stock of this Company is owned by the Capitalists of Louisville, Ky., and St. Louis, Mo. It is emphatically a Western and Southern Institution.

The DE SOTO has no desire to exalt its merits over those of other good Companies, nor to prosper on the decline of others, laboring in the same fields, and for the same grand object. Confident of its equal advantages with others, of whatever age or standing, it is willing to labor honorably for success, and hopes to deserve the public confidence by its energy, industry, and liberal spirit.

From the Missouri Republican.

"Few Companies have started out with such gratifying and flattering prospects of success, and under such favorable auspices. The Company has been extremely fortunate in the selection of its Directory. Its President, JAMES H. LUCAS, needs not a word of commendation from us. He enjoys a general reputation as a gentleman of wealth, unquestioned integrity, practical good sense, sound judgment and splendid business capacity.

The Directors rank among the first class of our merchants, bankers and citizens as men of capital, financial ability and experience: men of probity and unblemished reputation. In the character of such a Directory, the community have the best guarantee that the business of the Company will be prudently and judiciously managed."

Policies issued on all the popular plans and all Non-Forfeiting.

Policy-holders may travel by the usual modes of conveyance, either by land, river, lake or coastwise, in any portion of the United States and Territories, the settled portions of the two Canadas, Nova Scotia and New Brunswick, and in time of peace may cross and recross the Atlantic Ocean by the usual passenger routes to, and travel and reside within, any portion of Europe.

THE AMERICAN COMBINATION

Button Hole & Sewing Machine

Has been honored with the highest award in premiums and diplomas wherever entered for competition at fairs and exhibitions held during the past season.

THE SIMPLICITY, EASE AND CERTAINTY with which this machine operates, as well as the uniform excellence of its work, throughout the entire range of Sewing, in

Stitching, Hemming, Felling, Tucking, Cording, Braiding Quilting, Gathering & Sewing on, Overseaming, Embroidering on the Edge, and its Beautiful Button-Hole and Eyelet Hole Work,

Its Policies are liberal; its premiums moderate and made easy; its losses are paid promptly and its investments are made on the most solid basis, being principally in improved real estate worth twice the amount insured, paying ten per cent per annum.

All its Policies are non-forfeitable and all participate in profits from the beginning.

Dividends declared and applied annually to policy holders on the contribution plan.

The Company is strictly Mutual, and the profits of its business are paid not to stockholders but to its policy holders.

An equitable surrender value paid to all who through misfortune are unable to keep up their policies.
